Community Kitchens · Food Pantries · Home Delivered Meals · Other Resources

This information is provided by the Clay County Hunger Coalition. The Coalition is a group of non-profit organizations that meet monthly to discuss food insecurity issues in Clay County and how we can help those most affected. This list is what we know now and will change as new opportunities become available.

Please reach out to these other resources if additional assistance is needed: Clay County Department of Human Services, Elderbridge Agency on Aging and /or Upper Des Moines Opportunity. Contact information for these organizations is on the back.
